

Packing List for Island Vacations

Exploring The Blue Marble (<http://exploringthebluemarble.wordpress.com>)

By Trupti Devdas Nayak

Essentials

1. Travel documents (passports, drivers license etc)
2. Printouts of bookings, reservations
3. Destination guidebooks
4. Cellphones + chargers
5. Cash (Local currency and USD)
6. ATM card
7. Credit card
8. Prescription medicines and OTC like Tylenol, Tums, Band-aids
9. Dramamine (seasickness prevention)
10. Call the banks and notify them about upcoming trip
11. Call phone company to check about international coverage and roaming charges

Clothing

1. T-shirts
2. Shorts
3. Nice shirt for resort dining
4. Maxi dresses

Beach gear

1. Swimsuits (pack a minimum of two sets)
2. Flipflops / beach sandals
3. Sunglasses
4. Sunhat
5. Sunscreen
6. Sarong / cover-ups
7. Ziplock bags for wet clothes/tshirts
8. T-shirt to wear when snorkeling (to prevent sunburn)
9. Aloe burn ointment

Miscellaneous

1. Toiletries
2. Walking/Hiking shoes + hiking socks
3. Headlamp/flash light
4. Nalgene waterbottles - Hydrate, hydrate, hydrate!
5. Camera DSLR / Batteries / SD Cards - To capture all the stunning scenery around you.
6. Camera point & shoot + underwater waterproof bag (for snorkeling)
7. Insect repellent - Never know when those bugs and critters will want a bite out of you.
8. Hand sanitizer - A good idea to always keep this handy.
9. Travel Toilet Paper - Optional.
10. Accessories (Jewelry etc) - You gotta look great on the island!
11. Sturdy watch - Optional, since you will be on island time. Who cares what the exact time is, right? Jokes apart, if you have tours and activities booked, make sure to wear a reliable watch.
12. Books for the flight or the beach - Just pack a kindle if you like traveling light.
13. Beach bag - To toss in everything you need for a day at the beach.
14. Binoculars - Optional. Not required unless you're likely to hike or drive to vantage points and wish you had binoculars.